General Rules and Regulations

Where ORE is used in the following rules, it refers to Olds Regional Exhibition.

General

1. Olds Regional Exhibition is not in business for profit, and is operated for the sole purpose of aiding in the development of Agriculture and Industries of the Community. Exhibitors, Concessionaires and all other persons are only admitted to the Park on the understanding that they are cooperating with ORE in the above objectives.
2. Violation of Rules: An exhibitor who violates any of the following rules printed in the Olds Fall Classic Livestock Prize List shall be liable, upon the decision of the Livestock Committee to that effect, to the forfeiture of any and all prizes, prize money and premiums which may have been awarded to him and which have not at the time of such decision been delivered and also to the forfeiture of all privileges including passes to himself and/or his employees for such period as the Livestock Committee may determine and shall also be liable to forfeiture of any entry fees paid whether for classes shown before or to be shown after such violation, and also of any stall rentals or moneys paid for any privilege, and such exhibitor may be barred from showing at ORE at which such violation occurs and for such further period as the Livestock Committee may determine. The Livestock Committee may in their discretion impose any forfeiture and/or penalties and may impose such additional or other penalty or penalties or forfeitures as may be necessary.
3. Liability: All exhibitors shall be under the control and direction of ORE but solely at the risk of said exhibitor. ORE will not be responsible for damage, injury, loss or theft of or to any exhibit, irrespective of the cause of such damage, injury, loss or theft. Each exhibitor will be solely responsible for any loss, injury or damage done to, administered by or arising from any animal or article exhibited by him, for its description as given in the catalogue. This shall indemnify ORE against all legal or other proceedings in regard thereto.
4. ORE reserves the right to remove from the grounds, animals that may be deemed unsuitable or objectionable, without assigning any reason. If any exhibit has obtained admission through misrepresentation the exhibitor will forfeit any money paid for the un-expired term for space or stalls, and ORE shall be exonerated from any claim on the part of the exhibitors.
5. An exhibitor lodging a protest must make it in writing. It must be delivered to the Livestock Office on the day of the show, and receipt must be obtained. A protest must state plainly the cause of complaint or appeal and must be accompanied by a deposit of $100.00, which shall be forfeited, to ORE if the said protest is not sustained.
6. The Livestock Committee shall have absolute power to determine the validity of all protests and withhold prizes if they are of the opinion that it is just to do so. They shall also have power to interpret the rules and make new rules if the printed rules do not cover any dispute or point, which may be brought up. They may take action without protest being made.
7. The Livestock Committee reserves the right to decide any point not covered by the Rules.
8. Firms and Co-Partnerships: Firms and co-partners entering for competition must be in existence at the time of making entry and in all cases must be bonafide with affidavits of the particulars of firms available if required by the Livestock Committee.
9. Temporary Removal of Exhibits: No exhibit shall be temporarily removed during the show.
10. Release of Livestock: All Livestock will be released at 5:00 pm on Sunday, October 1st, 2023.
11. Stock trailers must park in ORE designated trailer parking zones.
12. The ORE will not be responsible for the calculations of points for Premier Breeder and Premier Exhibitor.
13. Initial Bedding will be supplied. Additional shavings available for purchase. Shavings only allowed.
14. A veterinarian is available if required; Pioneer Veterinary Services 403.556.6882
15. ORE exhibitors also abide by the IAFE Code of Show Ring Ethics
16. Absolutely NO dogs at large allowed on ORE grounds.
17. Each exhibit must have a CCIA tag upon arrival or will be excused.
18. Alcohol Consumption Prohibited
19. Town of Olds - Noise Control Bylaw #1178-80: This bylaw states that ORE' recreational users will adhere to the following hours in their use of public address, microphone systems and any other noise creating mechanisms:
Monday through Saturday; No noise after 10:00 pm - 7:00 am; Sundays and holidays; No noise after 10:00 pm - 8:00 am; ORE requests that our visitors and clients adhere to this bylaw in respect to our residential neighbors.

Diseased Animals – Health Requirements

In maintaining a high standard of animal health, all livestock is subject to inspection on arrival and throughout the duration of the show. If evidence of an infectious or contagious disease is discovered, the owner of the infected animal shall be required to remove the said animal from the premises.

Judging

1. Judges are requested to familiarize themselves with all rules and regulations of the show and especially those rules bearing on the classes judged by them.
2. Exhibitors must ascertain at what time judging will take place; and the OLDS REGIONAL EXHIBITION will consider no complaint or appeal based upon the statement that the judges have overlooked exhibits. No person shall be permitted in the judging rings during the time of judging except the Livestock Committee in charge, Judges, Livestock Superintendents and their assistants, showmen of the exhibit, and members of the press.
3. If two judges working together in placing awards in any department fail to agree, they shall forthwith retire from the judging ring and the awards shall be placed by a judge, appointed by ORE whose decisions will be final.
4. Any person who shall attempt to interfere with or influence the judges while in the course of their duties, or at any time on ORE Grounds or within the judges hearing, in consequence of any award made by them, shall forfeit his right to any prizes to which he might otherwise be entitled and may be excluded from exhibiting for one or more years thereafter. Judges are required to report any breach of this rule.
5. Judges are requested not to leave the grounds until they have ascertained from the Livestock Office that there is no protest against the awards in the section, which they judged. Judges are requested to sign all Clerk Sheets and to submit an Expense Claim Form, which is available from the Livestock Office.

Prizes

1. Breed show prizes are the responsibility of the respective breed show committees.
2. Should a prize be found to have been obtained or awarded in error on the part of the judges, clerk, or director in charge, or by false evidence or misrepresentation, or a violation of any of the rules, the money will be withheld or if paid in error, same must be refunded.
3. No prize ribbons may be affixed to any entry, except in Championship Classes, until the awards have been made.
4. HERDSMAN AWARD The winning exhibitor will be presented a special edition jacket donated by CAM CLARK FORD OLDS. No entry fee. No pre-entry accepted. To be awarded to the herdsman for the best display, not including the quality of cattle, judged on the following:
